

Accessing Georgia Studies Weekly on Clever

1. Go to clever.com and login.

Log in with Active Directory

2. Find my page under “Teacher Pages”

Ms. Toomey

3. Click on Studies Weekly

4. Find 3rd Grade's Magazine. It looks like this:

Georgia Studies Weekly—Ancient
America to Colonization

Grade: 3

5. Once you have selected 3rd grade, you'll need to choose the Weekly Magazine.

6. After selecting the week you want, look to the left side to locate the assigned article.

Reading / Georgia Studies Weekly—Ancient America to Colonization / Week 13: Early English Colonies / Articles

Articles

The Mystery of the Lost Colony of Roanoke

- Jamestown, an Unsettling Settlement
- An Alliance for Peace: Pocahontas and John Rolfe
- Sh... holiday?

The Mystery of the Lost Colony of Roanoke

00:00 04:52 Watch Video

"Good morning class! It's time to put your detective skills to work. This week, we're going to be exploring one of America's biggest mysteries, the lost colony of Roanoke!" The class cheered in excitement. Ms. Johnson had been teaching them all about the English colonies and John White's journey to the New World.

Select articles here

This is the article you will read.

Click here to see the intro video.

7. After reading the assigned article, you'll find the three questions at the bottom of the page.

"Great idea," Steven replied. "But let's watch the video about the Roanoke Colony, first."

Next - Jamestown, an Unsettling Settlement

What was the only clue left behind by the colonists at Roanoke?

1

- "CRAKATOA" on a tree
- a knife stuck into the ground with a feather on it
- bowls of food that looked like someone left them behind and ran away
- "CRO" on a tree and "CROATOAN" on a post

These are the quiz questions to answer after reading.

Do NOT click here. This will take you to the next article and you should only read this one assigned article.